

folks to have hearts full of envy. Mr. John Kerr Branch's win in the small harness class with his champion, "Mignonette," was a popular award, the mare putting up a great performance.

Mr. Jay Carlisle's well appointed victoria made one of the most pleasing events of the show, and the verdict of the judge in awarding him the "blue" was cordially received by the gallery and rail-roads.

Three jump classes closed the matinee events, and the fact that two local horses were adorned with the coveted blue rosette lent an additional pleasure to the classes.

Mr. Blanchard Forbes, riding his "Quickstep," was out in the Light Weight Green Hunters' Class, and Mr. E. B. Sydney jumped into first place with his "King Dodo" in the class for Deep Run Hunters. Mr. Beattie's "Mignonette" made a sensational performance in the latter class, literally flying twice the length of the obstacles and causing genuine thrills to run through the hearts of the gallery.

The night performance opened with the Brougham class, which proved one of the most finished events of the week. Beautifully turned out, Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue" made a great showing and gave an object lesson to horse lovers as to how a private carriage should be appointed.

Following came the park hack class, which was won by Mrs. Alden Potts's "Brilliant."

The first championship ribbon fell to the popular exhibitor, Mr. C. W. Watson, who won with his chestnut saddle horse, "Determination," ridden by Charlie Geyer, who rode "Rifle" to victory on Thursday night in the high jump event. The class horses in harness gave another blue to the Watson string with "Virginia" and "West Virginia," the band playing "Pipes" in honor of the patriotic names of the winners.

The roadster appointment class proved a gift for Mr. Alfred MacLay's "Auditor B," a trotter of great reputation and equal merit. The chestnut roadster has been shown twenty times, and has won nineteen times, a record probably unexcelled in the show ring.

In the big class that followed, it was war to the knife, for it was conceded that the winner of the class would prove the popular fancy for the championship to-night.

Mr. John Kerr Branch's "Mignonette," Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence," and Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore," were at the top of the class, and the award was awaited with breathless interest by the 3,000 people who eagerly watched the performance in the ring. Blue went to the invincible "Lord Baltimore," who made a great showing, driven by his owner, Mr. C. W. Watson.

Ladies Jumpers brought out a large and clever class, in which there were perhaps more clever performances made than in any other hunter class of the show. Again and again the jumpers were sent over the brush and rails, until finally the silver cup was awarded Miss Swart, riding Mr. David Dunlop's clever and consistent jumper "Confidence."

Miss Swart, who won the cup on the same horse in the night previous was given a rousing reception by the crowd.

Corinthian hunters ridden by members of recognized hunts in club colors closed the night's entertainment and the largest lot of any class shown made bids for the award.

Bright Bits of Color.
The men and women riding in the class made bright bits of color as they called over the jumps, the hunting plink coats of the riders giving a distinctive tone to the event.

In riding his black hunter "Centennial," Mr. Louis Young, a nephew of the late Major Ginter, barely escaped with his horse, the horse hitting the rails and sent Mr. Young rolling in the tan bark.

With great presence of mind the pink coated young gentleman rolled rapidly to one side and so escaped the front feet of his mount that landed exactly where he had fallen. It was a case of sudden death narrowly avoided, and a great sigh of relief went up from the onlookers like an uprush of new hope.

It was seen that the rider had escaped injury.

To-night's performance closes the programme of the Richmond Horse Show, and it is only fair to state that the last will be the best.

Practically all the championship classes will be contested, both for harness horses and hunters, and as a culminating event, Dick Donnelly, on "Heatherbloom," will attempt the feat of breaking the world's record high jump of 7 feet 9 inches, which the horse and rider now hold.

The matinee event was worthy of the occasion, and, if he fails or succeeds, the public will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the greatest daredevil acts of bravery that has ever been seen in any arena.

SPORTIEST EVENT OF THE ENTIRE SHOW
Matinee Performance Was Greatly Enjoyed—Features Were Excellent.

The sportiest event of the whole show opened the matinee on yesterday, when

Good For The Eyes

Correctly fitted Spectacles and Eyeglasses improve and preserve the sight, giving comfort and health. That is the kind we supply, and the service we render is recognized as the highest standard of excellence. Complete optical manufacturing plant on the premises. Prescription work is our specialty. Lowest charges and satisfaction guaranteed. Our department is complete in every respect, and the developing and printing is executed by artists of high merit and on short notice.

KODAK

The S. Galeski Optical Co.
Cor. 8th and Main Sts.

"Berry's for Clothes."

THEY GO FAST.

Our Top Coats.
Don't think you are "the real thing" without one of these. Some men are born with style.
Some men acquire style and some come here and have style thrust upon them.
The main point for young men is to get it.
Here—$12.80 to $30.00.

Fall Suits, $10.00 and up—the genuine all-wool Berry sort.

We're ready with all the novelties, cute things, and wear resisting garments for the boys.
Bring them in.

C. H. Berry & Co.
MEN'S & BOYS' CLOTHING

The entries for the road coach class raced from Deep Run Hunt Club into the ring at the horse show building. There were but two entries, that of Mr. David Dunlop, driver in a green and white coach by Mr. Fred Galloway and the road coach of Mr. Charles Fowles which he drove himself. On the Dunlop coach were Mrs. Henderson, Mr. Willett, one of the judges; Mr. Allen Potts, of the "Times-Dispatch," Mr. Hunt, who represented Mr. Dunlop; Guard Mason and two groomers. Of the Fowles coach were Mr. James Hyde, Secretary of the Richmond Horse Show; Major P. A. S. Brine, British Vice-Consul; Mr. Fowles, a guard, two groomers and two passengers.

Lively Spectacle.
The start was made from Deep Run Hunt Club at 1:47, and until the Boulevard was reached the coaches were absolutely together. Hundreds of people in vehicles of all sorts, motor cars, people on horseback and on foot lined the road. At the Soldiers' Home all the veterans turned out and cheered. All along the way the guards kept busy with the horns and the whole affair was a tremendous success. The first to leave the Boulevard to run to the show building, Galloway "sprung" his four and raced into the ring about a full minute ahead of the "Nimrod" coach. The action of the Dunlop coach first in the ring was greeted with cheers and Mr. Galloway was given an ovation. The actual time for the 3-1/2 miles was 14 minutes, the start having been made at 1:47 and the race entered.

The four were then judged by the harness judges, who decided that the Fowles four were in the best condition, and so the blue was accordingly awarded Fowles, with red to Mr. Dunlop.

The event was excellent, and there is no doubt but that the class will be again shown next year.

Several horses over 14-1/2 hands and not exceeding 15 hands brought out but two contestants, Miss Vera Morris's "Imp. Little Fritz" and Mr. H. W. Spralley's "Polly."

Mr. Spralley's exquisite small chestnut did not show very good manners, but easily outclassed Miss Vera Morris's entry. Blue went to Mr. Spralley's "Polly," and red to Miss Vera Morris's "Imp. Little Fritz."

"Chiffon and Ruffles."
The class for pairs of ponies not exceeding 12-1/2 hands brought out two entries. Mrs. Blaisdell drove Mr. Watson's "Chiffon" and "Ruffles," and Master John Dunlop drove his father's "Moving Picture" and "Delight."

The ponies were in the ring with their owners and with both pairs. The crowd cheered little John Dunlop, and a lot of Mr. Marshall's friends cheered him.

Blue went to Mr. Watson's "Chiffon" and "Ruffles," and red to Mr. Dunlop's "Moving Picture" and "Delight."

The appointments were perfect, and the judges had their work cut out for them.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

Ponies under saddle (not exceeding 14 inches) brought out seven entries, and the delight of the hundreds of children, who were present, was intense.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

Ponies under saddle (not exceeding 14 inches) brought out seven entries, and the delight of the hundreds of children, who were present, was intense.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

Ponies under saddle (not exceeding 14 inches) brought out seven entries, and the delight of the hundreds of children, who were present, was intense.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

Ponies under saddle (not exceeding 14 inches) brought out seven entries, and the delight of the hundreds of children, who were present, was intense.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

Ponies under saddle (not exceeding 14 inches) brought out seven entries, and the delight of the hundreds of children, who were present, was intense.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

Ponies under saddle (not exceeding 14 inches) brought out seven entries, and the delight of the hundreds of children, who were present, was intense.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

Master John Selden, fell through the second jump and threw his small rider. Master John was up again, but brushed away the tan bark and was over the remaining jumps before the shrill yell of horror and dread.

There was a claim made that "Blue Bell," Stewart Johnson's roan pony, was over 14-1/2 hands. Dr. Penneyhough was sent to measure her and found her 14 hands, an inch to the good.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

THE COAT
FEATURE OF A Cluett
is a modern idea—the shirt goes
"On and Off like a Coat"
For morning, afternoon or evening, cool and comfortable in every condition—exclusive color fast fabrics of its make.
$1.50 and more.
CLUETT, PEARBOY & CO.
Largest makers of Coats and Suits in the world.

making such a wonderful record at the show, had done a very graceful and sportsmanlike act.

On yesterday Mr. Watson sent Mr. James Hyde, secretary of the Richmond Horse Show, his cheque for $50, with the request that the association would purchase a place of silver plate and offer it for gift horses at next year's exhibition.

The conditions, which follow, were drawn by Mr. Watson, and are excellent:

Baltimore Challenge Plate.
For mares or geldings not over 15-1/2 hands and not exceeding 15-1/2 hands. To be shown to girls, owners to drive, accompanied by servant. The following score of points to govern: Confirmation, 20 per cent; action and manners, 20 per cent; quality, 20 per cent; pace and style of going, 20 per cent; appointment (horses to be shown with K. collars), 20 per cent. Professionals and dealers barred. This cup must be won twice by the same owner before it becomes his property.

STORY OF FOURTH NIGHT IN DETAIL
A Large Crowd in Attendance.
Some Revelations to Sport-Loving People.

After the usual excellent concert had been rendered by the Artillery Band and the horse enthusiasts had rested after the matinee, the class for pairs of Brougham horses was called. It was an open class for horses of any size, appointment counted 20 per cent. Both this class and the Victoria class of the matinee were revelations to the public here, for possibly a great majority of the Richmond people had never before seen private equipages so correctly turned out.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

Thoroughbred Hunters next furnished amusement for the crowd. The hunters shown were required to have been registered in the stud book. Confirmation counted 50 per cent, and performance 50 per cent. Nine entered and two scratched. This class had been already judged for confirmation, so that there was but little delay in making the award after the jumping.

Blue went to Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue," red to Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" and "My Maryland."

After the ribbons were awarded the small boys all rode over the jumps to the great delight of the crowd.

drove his "Wild Hazel," Mr. Drury drove his "Nellie B.," and Mr. Pollard drove "Crown Prince." The class called for appointments of forty per cent, and horses sixty per cent. Mr. MacLay's "Auditor B" won the blue, red going to Mr. E. A. Saunders's "Foxy Lamber," yellow to Mr. William F. Drury's "Nellie B.," and white to Mr. Saunders's "Lady Brilliant."

"White Wings" created a diversion by entering the arena and taking the tan bark six abreast.

Pairs of Horses.
The next class was for pairs of horses in harness, exceeding 15-1/2 hands. Three pairs, two of which were entered by Mr. Watson, and one by Mr. Dunlop, made up the class. All three pairs were 16 hands or over, and presented an impressive appearance. Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" and "Revenue" were each winners as "Mignonette," "Prosperity," and "Popularity." Mr. Mitchell drove Mr. Watson's "Virginia" and "West Virginia," and Mr. Galloway showed Mr. Dunlop's "Derby" and "Superior."

Blue went to Mr. C. W. Watson's Virginia and West Virginia, red to Mr. David Dunlop's Superior and Derby; yellow to Mr. C. W. Watson's Prosperity and Popularity.

The gig class that followed was the harness class of the evening. Every individual was a good one, and the pace was fast. There were each winners as "Mignonette," "Lord Baltimore," "Tantalus," "Blinner," "Eloquence," "Dr. Reid," "Miss Sharps," "My Maryland," and "Coggins."

The conditions were for the best horse not under 15 hands and not exceeding 15-1/2 hands, gentlemen to drive. It was a good class, and the horses were sent again and again before an award was given.

Lord Baltimore First.
Mr. Watson's "Lord Baltimore" was placed first, Mr. Branch's "Mignonette" second, Mr. Carlisle's "Eloquence" third and Mr. Howard's "Dr. Reid" fourth.

Ladies' jumping class brought out twenty-five entries, amongst them the best jumpers in the show. Performance only counted, and the association presented to the lady riding the winner a handsome silver cup.

Miss Skelton rode "Silver Slipper," Father Coleman's pony, with one refusal. Miss Swart rode "Confidence" with a lip. Miss Marion Holloway rode Red Raven, and went out on three refusals. Mrs. Henderson, on Heatherbloom, made one rap. Mrs. Delrick, on "Buck," went clean.

Miss Skelton, on "Cygnet," went three raps. Miss Swart, on "Nancy Lee," went clean.

Mrs. Henderson, on "Brandon," went three raps.

Miss Marion Holloway, on "Jack Frost," went with one touch.

Mrs. Allen Potts, on "Torchlight," went clean.

Miss Skelton, on "Sinhad," went with two touches.

Mrs. Henderson, on "Ireland's Arrow," went clean.

Miss Holloway, on "May Bell," touched the brush once.

Miss Skelton, on "Sir Gibbie," went with a rap.

Mrs. Henderson, on "King Dodo," touched the brush jump twice.

Mrs. Henderson, on "Sinhad," went with three raps.

In the class Mrs. Henderson rode six horses, Miss Skelton rode four, Miss Holloway rode three, Miss Swart rode two, Mrs. Labouisse rode one, Mrs. Allen Potts rode one, and Mrs. Delrick rode one.

All the horses were then sent out of the ring except nine. The class was for performance only.

On the second jump off, Mrs. Delrick, on "Buck," went clean.

Mrs. Henderson, on "Torchlight," had two raps.

Miss Holloway, on "Red Raven," went clean.

Mrs. Allen Potts, on "Firelight," went clean.

Miss Swart, on "Confidence," had one touch at the brush.

Mrs. Henderson, on "King Dodo," went with a rap.

Miss Holloway, on "Jack Frost," went clean.

Mrs. Henderson, on "Heatherbloom," went with two raps.

Mrs. Henderson, on "Ireland's Arrow," went clean.

Miss Swart, on Mr. Dunlop's "Confidence," won the blue and the silver cup, as she laid last night. Red went to Mrs. Delrick's "Buck," yellow to Miss Holloway's "Jack Frost," and white to Miss Vera Morris's "Ireland's Arrow."

The Corinthian class called out a lot, twenty-eight in number. Firelight was scratched.

Forty Years in Virginia

The Maryland Life Insurance Co. of Baltimore.

Conservative and Economical Management.

Insurance on a Single Life limited to $20,000.

This Company has paid over $4,500,000 to its policyholders, and every loss has been settled without delay or litigation in any case. The funds of this Company are invested in securities of the highest grade. Energetic men in Virginia and Eastern North Carolina who can furnish satisfactory references as to character, and who desire to represent this Company under direct contracts from the Home Office, including a substantial renewal interest, can secure full information on the subject by writing to

M. D. HART and R. W. DANIEL,
District Superintendents,

2 North Ninth Street, Richmond, Virginia,

OR
To the Home Office, Baltimore, Maryland.

especially reserved seats for Governor Montague and Mayor McCarthy, respectively, and their parties in the Virginia-Caroline football game to-day. The Governor's party will be seated in the western corner of the grand stand, and the Mayor and his party will be seated in section 1 of the field seats.

The grounds will be open at 1:30 o'clock, and the great contest will begin promptly at 2:30.

ENDOWMENT RANK, K. OF P. FORMS ORGANIZERS' ASSN.
(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, October 12.—The general organizers of the Endowment Rank, Knights of Pythias, to-day formed a General Organizers Association. The following officers were elected:

President, H. Cronheim, Atlanta, Ga.; Vice-President, D. W. Roger, Nashville, Tenn.; Secretary and Treasurer, A. L. Brown, Temple, Texas.

C. H. Boyer, of North Carolina